ABOUT KEFALAS VILLAGE

Kefalas is a wonderful traditional village with a strong traditional architecture.

The name of the village comes from the first residents, “kefalades”, who were the leaders of settlers of Byzantium sent by Alexios Komninos in 1182 to live in Crete.

Near the beach and the nature, the village is surrounded by large trees and herbal vegetation, with healthy climate and quite place. It is a place where foreign and local residents live together.
